SOUTH COAST SOCIALITE

HALLOWE'EN GHOST PARTY, to raise awards money for artists exhibiting at the Laguna Beach Art Gallery, is being sponsored by the Art Association Affiliates. Would be party goers, however, may stay right at home and just send in their donations because "There is no real party, the ghost walks alone." Mrs. Gerald Hampshire, secretary, shows sketch of invitation to Mrs. Colin Timmons, Mrs. Lawrence Adams and unidentified ghost.

Art Association Women Now Known as 'Affiliates'

A new name, Art Assn. Affiliates, has been selected by the group of women formerly identified as Friends and Patrons of the Laguna Beach Art Assn.

A conflict with "Friends" and "Patrons" memberships in the parent Art Assn. necessitated the change of name.

Newly-elected chairman of the Affiliates is Mrs. Armand L. Shaefer. Mrs. Joseph F. Simons is co-chairman of the group with Mrs. Gerald Hampshire, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence Adams, treasurer.

Getting right down to the business of assisting the Laguna Beach Art Assn. in all fields of endeavor, the Affiliates are sponsoring a Halloween Ghost Party for the immediate purpose of raising awards money for artists exhibiting at the Art Gallery.

Feeling that in a busy season of many teas, it is often more fun to stay at home and pay for that privilege, recipients of invitations to the Halloween

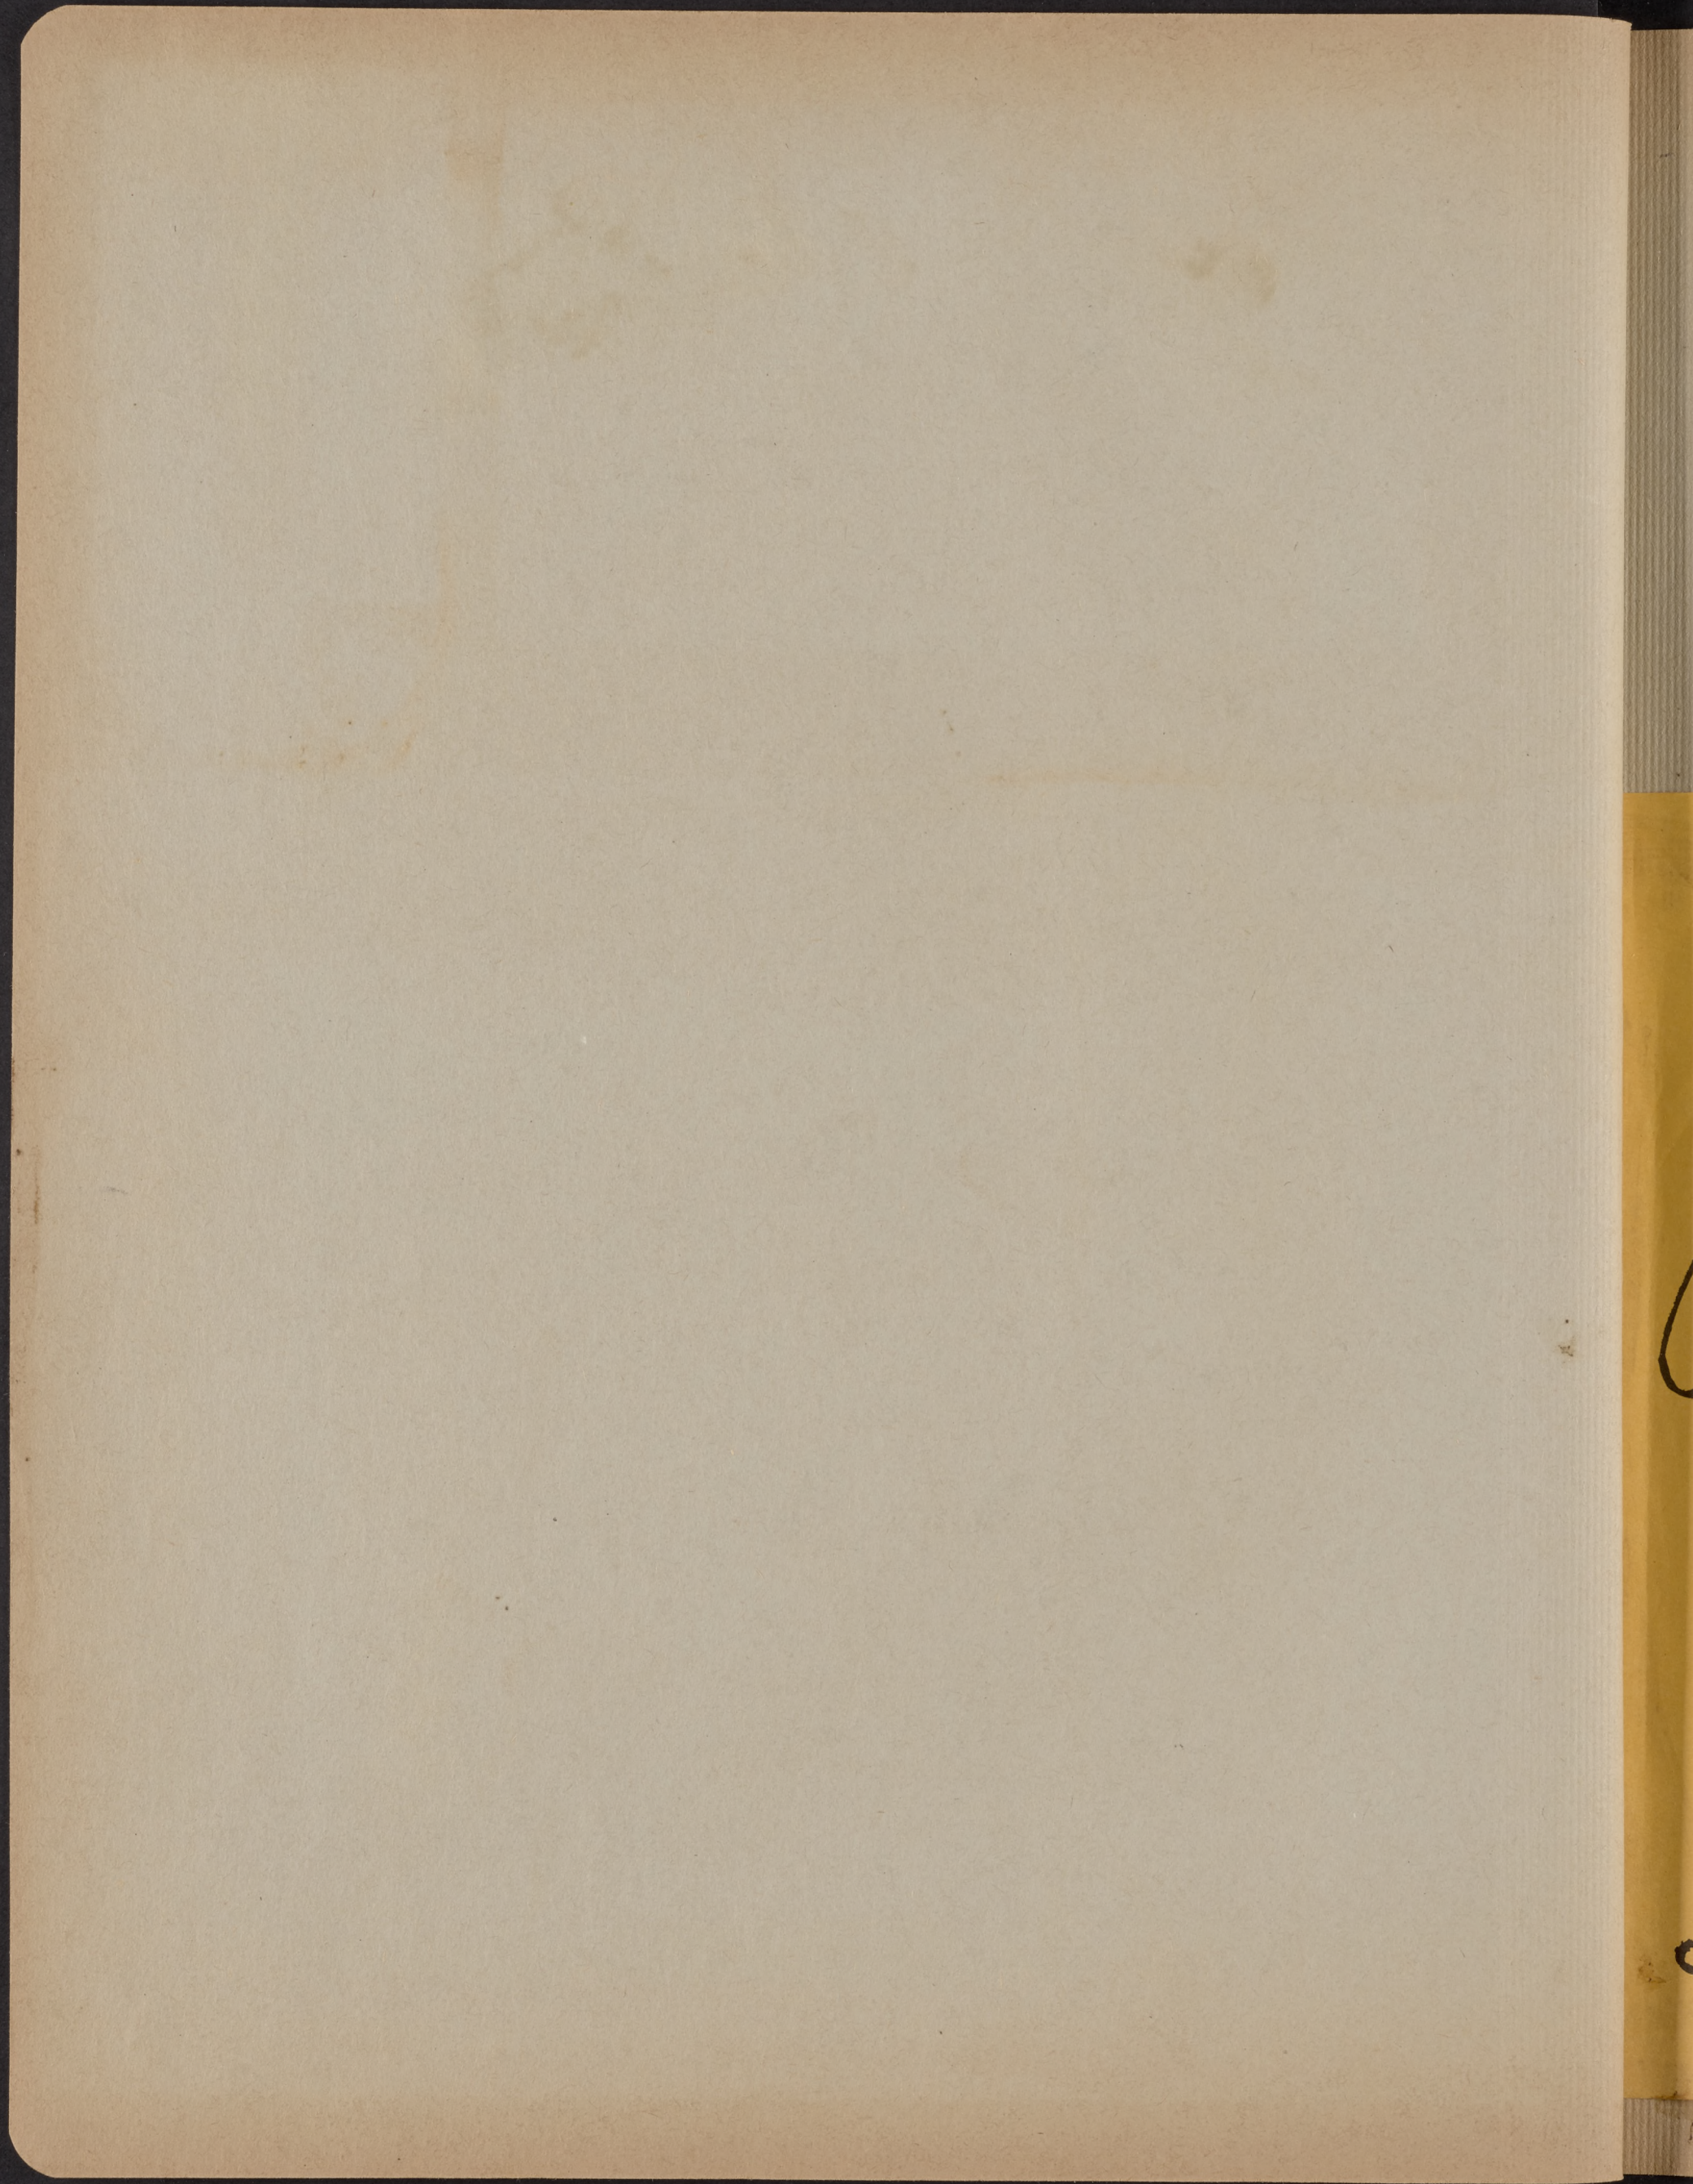

Ghost Party are asked for a donation to the awards fund—and "No new hat to buy; or go to the store. Just sit by your fire and have tea in your home. There is no real party. The ghost walks alone."

The Affiliates will meet at the Art Gallery on the first Wednesday of each month at 10 a.m.

Any feminine member of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. is invited to join the group.

HELPS AT GHOSTLY TEA—Mrs. Joseph Simmons paints a Halloween painting to help decorate the non-existent tea planned by the Laguna Beach Art Gallery Affiliates. Supporters of the Gallery are asked to stay home and have a cup of tea while communing with goblins and ghosties thereby saving money. The money saved on new chapeaux for attending an actual tea can be sent in to support the Gallery.

GHOST PARTY—Art Association Affiliates of Laguna Beach are planning a party not to be held. Advertising the benefit affair — for which guests will pay for the privilege of staying home—are Mrs. Joseph F. Simmons, left, and Mrs. Armand Schaefer. Mrs. Hobey Cox takes glee in being the ghostly ghost.

SECOND ANNUAL OPEN EXHIBITION

Laguna Art Assn. Sets County Event

Invitations to participate in the Second Annual Open Orange County Painting Exhibition are in the mail today. This annual survey of the outstanding achievements executed by Orange County painters is sponsored by the Laguna Beach Art Association and will be held from Nov. 29 through Dec. 30. The competition is open to all artists, regardless of media or point of view. Entries, limited to two paintings per artist, will be received Nov. 11 to Nov. 18 only.

A total of $600 in cash prizes are offered; first prize, $250; second, $150; third, $100. Additionally, there are two $50 cash awards allocated for honorable mentions. Funds for the cash awards were raised by the Art Affiliates of the Laguna Art Association.

Jurors selected for the Second Annual Orange County Exhibition are Hans Burkhardt, Richard Haines and Emil Kosa, Jr. The exhibition committee arranging the show under the leadership of president Mogens Abel includes Rex Brandt, Jae Carmichael, Alexandra Churchill, Dwight Gibbs, Rostand D. Kelly, Marjorie Nowlen, David Rosen and Virginia Wooley.

Cooperating with the Laguna Beach Art Assn. in an advisory capacity are leaders of other Orange County art groups — Mary Jane Haden, Art Consultant for Orange County Schools; Nether Worthington, Chapman College; Donna Sharkey, Orange Coast College and Laguna School of Art and Design; Helen Hooper and Merle Bonney, Torana Art League; Mary Anne Lyles, Orange County Art Association.

Unheld Party to Benefit Art Awards

LAGUNA BEACH — Have you received an invitation to the Halloween Ghost party that isn't even going to be held?

It may sound zany, but Art Association Affiliates is sponsoring just that type of an affair.

Mrs. Armand L. Schaefer, the new chairman, explains the idea is to raise awards money for artists exhibiting at the Laguna Arts Gallery.

The general plan is simple: "This being the busy season of teas and other events, people may find it more fun to pay for the privilege of staying at home instead of going gallivanting," Mrs. Schaefer said. Recipients of invitations to the Halloween Ghost Party are being asked for a donation to the awards fund. They are told, "No new hat to buy—no new clothes for the party. Just sit by your fire and have tea in your home."

The Art Association Affiliates formerly was known as Friends and Patrons of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. The name has been changed because of a conflict with other "Friends" and "Patrons" memberships.

The affiliates, dedicated to the support of better art, meet at the Laguna Art Gallery at 10 a.m. the first Wednesday of each month. There now are 60 members. All woman members of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. are welcome to join.

Mrs. Joseph F. Simmons is co-chairman of the group. Mrs. Gerald Hampshire is secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence Adams, treasurer.

The Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. will meet on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Adams, 555 Dunnegan Drive.

Mrs. Adams is treasurer of The Affiliates, and will preside as hostess for the coffee hour.

The morning program will be given by Mrs. John F. Dodge of Newport Beach, a member who has a valuable collection of antique snuff bottles. Mrs. Dodge has spent many years acquiring these unique objects around the world.

The Dec. 4 meeting will also serve as the "kickoff" for the Third Annual Flea Market, scheduled for Jan. 24 and 25, at the School of Art and Design, a division of the Laguna Beach Art Assn., located at 630 Broadway. Members will each bring a contribution to stock the Flea Market Warehouse. Guests may also be invited to attend.

This will be the first in a series of "bundle parties" given by members of The Affiliates in their own homes.

Already "bundle parties" have been scheduled for the immediate future by Mmes. Alton

Christmas Party Planned by Art Assoc. Members

Members of the Laguna Beach Art Association are happy to share outstanding events at the popular art gallery with the public—with one exception—the annual Christmas party.

"Members only" is a strict rule for this festive affair, which this year will be held on Friday, Dec. 13, at 8:30 p.m. Reservation deadline is Dec. 10.

A full evening of entertainment has been planned by Mrs. Roger Armstrong, chairman of the Christmas Gala. Contributing their talents are June Budd, soprano; Virginia Nixon, dramatic reader; and Margery Winter, concert pianist. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hance will coordinate a series of musical surprises for the party.

Entering into the spirit of the occasion, the board of directors of the Art Association will enact a skit, especially written for them by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nowlen. Mrs. Paul Kunasz will direct this fun offering.

Art Gallery Gala Enjoyed By Four Hundred Members

The Laguna Beach Art Association Gallery has been the scene of many gay and distinguished gatherings, but certainly none more brilliant nor enjoyable than the 1963 Christmas Gala held there last Friday. Four hundred members gathered to participate in the festive affair, chairmanned by Mrs. Roger Armstrong and her co-chairmen, Mrs. Eugene Nowlen and Mrs. Paul Kunacz, with the added help of Santa Claus (David Rosen) and scores of men and women from the ranks of artist-members and the Affiliates.

The gala program featured June Budd, Virginia Nixon and Margery Winter. Paul and Judy Hance charmed with musical background.

Members were greeted as they entered the entresol by Association president, Mogens Abel, Messrs.

and Mmes. Lawrence Adams, Herbert Allerhand, Roger Armstrong and John Bingham. Also in the receiving line were William Salyer and Dr. Norman Nixon.

Festive punch bowls were presided over by Mmes Adolph Kroch, LeRoy Childs, Andrew Morthland, Win. Gieshen and Arthur Werner. Refreshment chairmen were Mmes. Ernest Carmen, Alex Churchill and Miss Hester Arthurs. Door prizes were contributed by Mmes. Alton Allen, Hovey Cox and Joseph Simmons.

An attractive group of artist's wives assisted with door prize drawings—Mmes. Harold Akins, Herbert Griswold, Dixi Hall and Larry Rink, while the husbands themselves manned the check rooms and assisted where needed. Others contributing to the success of the affair were Jon Stokesbary, Ken Knutson, Sherry Hasney and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Muller.

Jovial Santa Claus helped carry out his merry duties with the assistance of Jane Callender Rosen, Ann Osborne, and Ray Friesz.

What to Do with Those Christmas White Elephants

Wondering what to do with those Christmas white elephants?

Here's the quick, easy and philanthropic way—just bundle them up and give them to Fern Randolph, chairman of the third annual Flea Market, the big fund-raising bargain event for the benefit of the Laguna Beach Art Association.

Scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Jan. 24 and 25, at the School of Art and Design, a division of the Art Association located at 630 Broadway, this year's Flea Market is already attracting wide attention.

A special Collection Party will be held on Friday, Jan. 10, from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. when "treasures" will be accepted. Or, if a pickup is needed, just call Miss Randolph at 494-1630 and one of the crew of station wagon drivers will call.

"Our two big bundle parties in December hosted by Mrs. Lawrence Adams and by Mrs. Alton Allen and Mrs. Eugene Nowlen, have given us a good start in stocking our Flea Market warehouse, but we need much more. We will accept everything, literally from A to Z, for this annual event," stated Miss Randolph. "We anticipate your co-operation."

Giant 'Bundle Party' Slated to Precede Annual Art Association Flea Market

Members and friends of the Laguna Beach Art Association will participate in a giant "bundle party" on Friday, Jan. 10, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the School of Art and Design, when merchandise for the annual Flea Market will be accepted by the Affiliates of the Art Assoc.

Donations of antiques, paintings, silver, jewelry, objets d'art, furniture and Christmas "white elephants" will stock the shelves for the big fund-raising benefit, scheduled for January 24 and 25.

Fern Randolph, chairman of the 1964 Flea Market, says that hundreds of items have already been brought in through a series of private "bundle parties." The big one, scheduled for Friday, should really pack the warehouse with enough "treasures" to satisfy the many Orange County bargain hunters who annually patronize the Flea Market.

Affiliates sponsoring the Flea Market for the Art Assoc. will gather at 10 a.m. for a brief meeting before opening the doors to the general public. Committee chairmen include Mmes. Wm. Geishan, Jack Muller and Arthur Werner. Working with them will be Mmes. Lawrence Adams, Alton Allen, Herbert Allerhand, Roger Armstrong, Fred Brown, Ellen Buzwell, Robert Campbell, Hovey Cox, Ernest Carman, John Dodge and Verne Dudley.

Others include Mmes. Leo Gassman, Norman Greenway, Reg Henn, Frank Hilditch, Irwin Kee, Jack Macartney, Theo Nashman, George Ontjes, Edward Reed, Walt-

Flea Market Prepared To Have Preview Nite

The Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. are all set for their third annual Flea Market scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Jan. 24 and 25, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., in the studios of the School of Art and Design, 630 Broadway, Laguna Beach, adjoining the Art Festival grounds.

Well organized under the chairmanship of Miss Fern Randolph, they've even decided to have a little fun ahead of the big bargain-benefit and have calendared a Preview Party for Tuesday night, Jan. 21, from 7 to 10 p.m. The discerning buyer may make selections from hundreds of donated items of antiques, paintings, jewelry, furniture, silver and trash n' treasure. The public is invited and there will be door prizes, fun and refreshments for a donation of $2.

The Affiliates have been storing "treasures" since the last Flea Market so there will be plenty of good values offered this year.

Miss Randolph has a large group working with her. Various section chairmen include Mrs. Hovey Cox, Affiliates president and Mmes. Wm. Geiseln, Jack Muller and Arthur Werner. Others are Mmes. Lawrence Adams, Alton Allen, Herbert Allerhand, Roger Armstrong, Fred Brown, Ellen Buzwell, Robert

'Bundle Party' to Be Flea Market Prelude

LAGUNA BEACH — A "giant" bundle party will be held by members and friends of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. Friday, Jan. 10, as a prelude to the annual Flea Market sale of Art Association Affiliates on Jan. 24-25.

The bundle party will take place at the Laguna School of Art and Design from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Donations of antiques, paintings, silver, jewelry, other art objects, furniture and Christmas left-overs will be donated by members and friends to stock the shelves for the big fund-raising benefit in two weeks.

Pack Warehouse

Hundreds of articles already have been contributed to the Flea Market project through a series of private bundle parties, according to Mrs. Fern Randolph, chairman of this year's Flea Market.

Mrs. Randolph predicts that Friday's bundle party will pack the warehouse with enough "treasures" to satisfy the many Orange County bargain hunters who annually patronize the Flea Market.

Committee chairmen of the Affiliates are Mmes. William Geishen, Jack Muller and Arthur Werner.

Others on the committee are Mmes. Lawrence Adams, Alton Allen, Herbert Allerhand, Roger Armstrong, Fred Brown, Allen Buzwell, Robert Campbell, Hovey Cox, Ernest Carman, John Dodge, Verne Dudley, Leo Gassman and Norman Greenway.

Also Mmes. Reg Henn, Frank Hilditch, Irwin Kee, Jack Macartney, Theo Nashman, George Ontjes, Edward Reed, Walter Raabe, Armand Schaefer, Byron Sells, Joseph Simmons, Arthur Stead, Herman Whitmore, Gertrude Forst and Hester Arthurs.

Laguna Art Affiliates To Hold Flea Market

The Third Annual Flea Market, sponsored by the Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association, is scheduled for Jan. 24 and 25 from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. in the studios of the School of Art and Design, 360 Broadway, Laguna Beach, adjoining the Festival grounds.

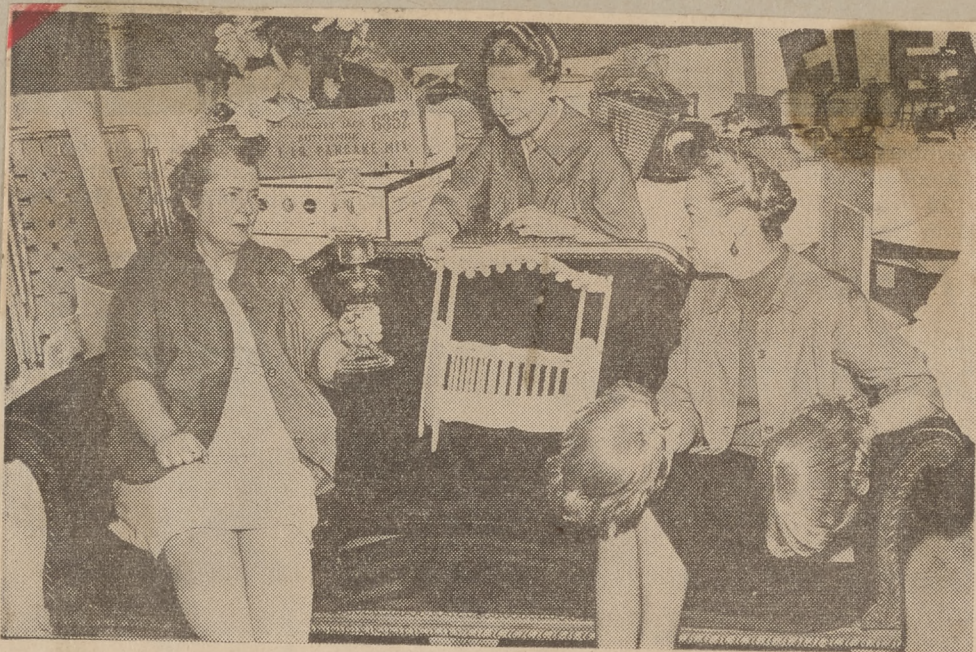

Organized under the chairmanship of Miss Fern Randolph, it has been decided to add extra fun before the big bargain benefit, so a Preview Party is planned Jan. 21 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the same location. The discerning buyer will have the opportunity of making an unhurried selection from hundreds of donated items, antiques, paintings, jewelry, furniture, silver and trash 'n treasure. The public is invited and there will be door prizes, fun and refreshments.

Another interesting facet of the Preview Party will give men an insight into the strong attraction women feel toward bargain sales, rummage sales and benefits of like nature. Affiliates have been storing "treasures" since the last Flea Market so there will be plenty of good values offered this year, according to Miss Fern Randolph.

Various section chairmen include Mrs. Harvey Cox affiliates president; Mrs. William Geishen, Mrs. Jack Muller, Mrs. Arthur Werner, Mrs. Lawrence Adams, Mrs. Alton Allen, Mrs. Herbert Allerhand, Mrs. Roger Armstrong, Mrs. Fred Brown, Mrs. Ellen Buzwell, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Ernest Carman, Mrs. John Dodge, Mrs. Verne Dudley, Mrs. Leo Gassman, Mrs. Norman Greenway, Mrs. Redge Henn, Mrs. Frank Hilditch, Mrs. Irwin Kee, Mrs. Marcel Langlois, Mrs. Jack MacCartney and Mrs. Andrew Morthland.

Others are Mrs. Theo Nashman, Mrs. George Ontjes, Mrs. Emilita Painter, Mrs. Gale Pike, Mrs. Edward Reed, Mrs. Walter Raabe, Mrs. Armand Schaefer, Mrs. Byron Sells, Arthur Stead, Mrs. Colin Timmons, Mrs. Herman Whitmore, Miss Hester Arthur and Miss Gertrude Frost. Capt. Joseph Lademan, George Riefel and Donald Vanderbilt are designated as security officers on sale days.

FLEA MARKET—The divan on which (from left) are seated Mrs. Fern Randolph, general chairman of the Third Annual Flea Market; and Mrs. Jack Muller, with Mrs. Verne Dudley, standing, and all the various items pictured, along with hundreds more, will be on sale Jan. 24 and 25 from 9 a.m. until

6 p.m. each day. This popular annual event, sponsored by the Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association, will take place in the studios of the School of Art and Design, 630 Broadway in Laguna Beach, adjoining the Festival grounds. (Register photo)

Flea Market Open Today

The third annual Flea Market, a veritable treasure house of bargains, will open its doors promptly at 9 a.m. today and again on Saturday until all items are cleared out, at 630 Broadway in the Art School studios.

Forty members of the Art Affiliates will be on hand to staff the big benefit sale of antiques, furniture, silver, paintings, etc., collected during the past two months.

All proceeds go to the Laguna Beach Art Association.

The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

at the School of Art and Design. Proceeds from the Market will help establish a scholarship at the art school. (Pete Fulmer Photo)

Affiliates Meet Wednesday

Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. will meet at the Art Gallery on Wednesday, Feb. 5, at 10 a.m., to hear final reports on the successful 1964 Flea Market.

Thomas Laursen, free lance designer, will give a lecture-demonstration on the principles of color and design. The meeting will be followed by a no-host luncheon at Victor Hugo's. Mrs. Colin Timmons and Mrs. Joseph Simmons are taking luncheon reservations.

Mr. Laursen is an instructor at the School of Art and Design, a division of the Laguna Beach Art Assn. He has also taught at Chouinard, Los Angeles City College, Kann Institute of Art and the Pasadena Art Museum.

Fern Randolph, chairman of the 1964 Flea Market, wishes to thank members and friends of the Art Assn. whose donations stocked the Flea Market, as well as the general public, local merchants who contributed prizes and the Schmidt-Phillips Co. for providing the music.

"We also wish to express gratitude to the Festival of Arts for giving us space for advance storage of items, and to the ever-cooperative press for their fine help in publicizing the big event. Lastly, and most important of all, heartfelt thanks to all the wonderful committee members who worked unceasingly for weeks on end to assure the success of the 1964 Flea Market."

Chief beneficiary of the proceeds from the Affiliates activities is the Laguna Beach Art Assn., but others as well will benefit. A scholarship will be allotted to the School of Art and Design.

Goodwill Industries and Dan Davey and his American Indians projects were the recipients of all unsaleable and leftover merchandise.

Art Affiliates To Hear Reports

Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association will meet at the Art Gallery on Wednesday, February 5, at 10 a.m., to hear final reports on the highly successful 1964 Flea Market. Thomas Laursen, free-lance designer, will give a lecture-demonstration on the principles of color and design. The meeting will be followed by a no-host luncheon at Victor Hugo's. Mrs. Colin Timmons and Mrs. Joseph Simmons are taking luncheon reservations.

Mr. Laursen is an instructor at the School of Art and Design, a division of the Laguna Beach Art Assoc.

Fern Randolph, chairman of the 1964 Flea Market, wishes to thank members and friends of the Art Assoc. whose donations stocked the Flea Market, as well as the general public, who bought so enthusiastically. Local merchants contributed prizes for the Preview; Schmidt-Phillips Co. provided an organ and musician; the Festival of Arts gave space for advance storage. The "ever-cooperative press" was thanked for publicity and "heartfelt thanks" went to all the committee members who worked for weeks to assure the Flea Market's success.

Chief beneficiary of the proceeds from the Affiliates activities is the Laguna Beach Art Assoc., but others as well will benefit. A scholarship will be allotted to the School of Art and Design. Goodwill Industries and Dan Davey and his American Indians projects were the recipients of all unsaleable and leftover merchandise.

Dear Mrs. Simmons,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Laguna Beach Art Association and most especially for myself, I would like to thank you very much for lending your gracious presence to our Open House on the afternoon of February 20, 1964. Without your able assistance and that of the other members of the Affiliates who helped on this occasion we, here in the Gallery, would have been greatly over-taxed.

Looking forward to seeing you in the Gallery again very shortly, I am,

COSTA MESA, CALIFORNIA

Jo and Esther Dendel's DENWAR SCHOOL OF MOSAIC is founded on the belief that the creative spark buried in every human being can be activated through the medium of mosaic. The work of hundreds of their students who have never before made or carried out a design is proof that mosaic is the easy way to enter the exciting and never-ending world of art. The student is not handed a ready-made design but is shown techniques by which he can make an individual design of his own. His experience in mosaic then becomes a creative adventure rather than a mechanical process.

The Dendels believe that art is a way of living within the reach of everyone; not the special realm of an ivory-towered few.

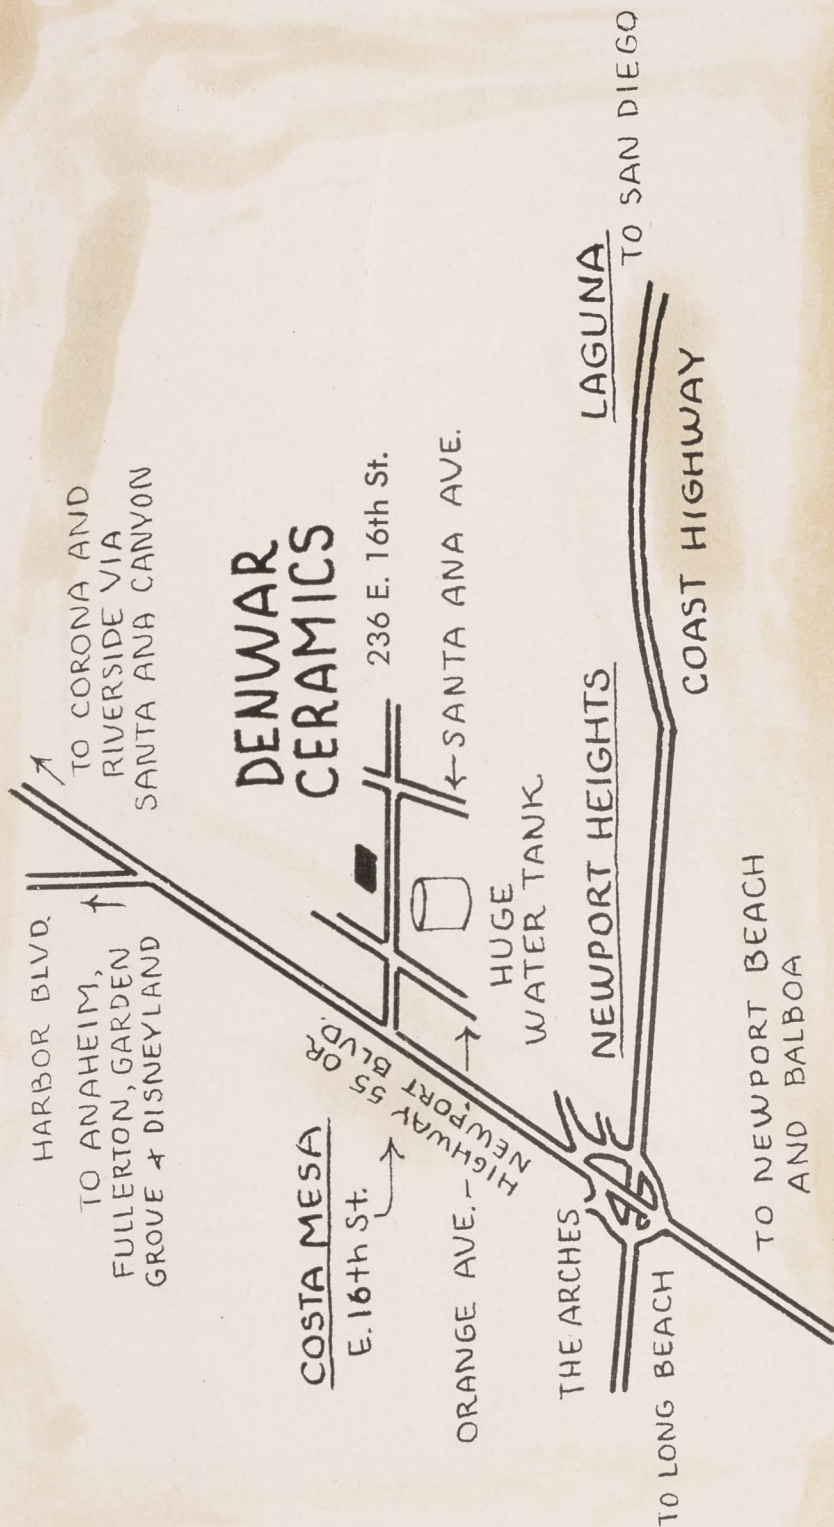

Classes at their Denwar Studio are geared to the beginners' needs. Students attend for two-hour sessions, once a week for five weeks with home-work assignments to help develop design ability. Reservations in advance are necessary.

Jo and Esther Dendel are a husband-wife artist team, who in the last seven years have turned their creative skills to the mosaic medium. Jo is a sculptor, wood engraver, book illustrator, and the designer of Bantu dinnerware manufactured by Denwar. Before turning to these activities, Jo managed a rubber plantation in Liberia, West Africa.

Esther is a muralist, a teacher, and a writer. She trekked through the hinterland of Liberia, West Africa, collecting masks for museums and the handicrafts of the tribespeople. Out of these experiences grew her three books published under the pen name of Esther Warner—New Song in a Strange Land, Seven Days to Lomaland, and The Silk-Cotton Tree. Her latest book is Art: An Everyday Experience. Currently she teaches mosaic at the Denwar Studio and at Orange Coast College.

The Dendel's house which they have built in their spare time (next to their studio) shows many of the uses for which mosaics are appropriate.

To visit the main Gallery of the Laguna Beach Art Association is "like walking through an enchanted forest." The occasion is the California Invitational Sculpture Exhibit which was juried by Jae Carmichael, David Green and Douglas McClellan. The show runs the gamut of styles from delicate bronze figures to towering totems. A wide variety of media is used and the approach is from the whimsically amusing to the austere solemn.

"Sculpture is so often overlooked during a painting exhibit," says Roger Armstrong, Director, "and since it is becoming an increasingly important phase of art, we have made this exclusive sculpture showing an annual event. As far as we know, it is the only such exhibit on the west coast."

First cash prize was awarded to David Elder with Robert Thomas taking second; third prize was shared by three sculptors: James Hueter, Robert Glover and Claire Falkenstein. Honorable Mentions went to Julie MacDonald, Robert Cremean and Mel Henderson. Among other well-known exhibitors are Robert Ortleib, Emil Lazarevich, Jack Stuck, Arthur Secunda, Roger Kuntz and Amalia Shulthess.

In Gallery I there are wall hangings, stabiles and mobiles by Esther and Jo Dendel of the Denwar Studio.

The Moulton Gallery carries a juried membership show of drawings and graphics.

Opened to the public May 30, there will be a Golden Champagne Party Saturday, June 13, at 8 p.m., sponsored by The Affiliates for Association members and their guests. Black tie optional; $2.50 per person.

Black Tie Benefit Celebrates Gallery Sculpture Show

The Golden Champagne Party sponsored by the Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association, to be held Saturday evening, June 13, promises to be a night to remember, says sponsors.

The gala black tie benefit limited to 300 members and guests of the Association will highlight the spectacular "Form in Space '64" Sculpture Show now in progress in the Cliff Drive Gallery.

Fern Randolph, president of the Affiliates, the fundraising group for the association, has appointed Mrs. Lawrence Adams chairman of the affair, assisted by Mmes. Irvin Kees, Roger Armstrong and Jack Muller. Junior members pouring refreshments will include Mesdames William Dotts, Roger Liljestrom, W. J. Halligan and Messieurs, Jon Stokesbury and Roger Alexander.

Tickets may be reserved by calling 499-1867, 494-8763, KI 9-3603, $2.50 per person

CHECKING IN SCULPTURE submitted for the 1964 All-California Exhibit are Art Affiliates members (from left) Mrs. Arthur Stead, Miss Fern Randolph, Affiliates president, and Mrs. William Geischen. The Affiliates will act as hostesses for the All-California show to be located this year at 608 Broadway, adjacent to the Festival grounds.

Affiliates to Hostess All-California Exhibit

The Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association have been requested by the boards of directors of the Festival of Arts and the Laguna Beach Art Association to hostess the 1964 All California Exhibit.

The Exhibit, jointly sponsored by the Art Association and the Festival, will be housed this year at 608 Broadway, adjacent to the Festival grounds, and will be open to the public without charge, from 12 noon until 10 p.m. daily for a period of five weeks starting July 11.

For the past two weeks the executive board of the Affiliates has been working with Roger Armstrong, Art Gallery director, receiving and cataloguing over 600 paintings and pieces of sculpture. Starting July 9, they will be on hand to check out the hundreds of paintings rejected by the jurors—Ruth Osgood, Bennett Bradbury and Roger Kuntz. Assisting in this preparatory work have been Affiliates president, Miss Fern Randolph and Mmes. Lawrence Adams, Herbert Allerhand, Roger Armstrong, Wm. Geischen, Gerald Hampshire, Irwin Kee, Jack Muller, Joseph Simmons, Arthur Stead and Colin Timmons.

Mrs. Arthur Stead has been appointed co-ordinating chairman of hostesses. Two shifts daily for the five-week period have been scheduled—the first group will work from noon until 5 p.m., and the second shift will be on hand from 5 p.m. until 10 p.m.

This is a large order for the Affiliates and co-operation in this important community project is requested.

Affiliates and their friends wishing to volunteer for hostess duty may call Mrs. Stead at HYatt 4-6644 to receive their time schedule.

NOTES FROM THE Art Gallery

By ROGER ARMSTRONG
Curator

On display this month is the Annual Membership Prize Award Exhibit. Housed in Galleries I and II, this exhibit contains at least one example of "pop art" and many paintings in the so-called "tradition". The jurors, chosen by popular vote of the membership, (which, incidentally, was the largest membership meeting ever held in the forty-odd year history of the Art Association) were Joan Irving Brandt, Jae Carmichael, Roger Kuntz, Ben Abril and Frank Hamilton. This five-man jury awarded prizes in painting and in graphics, but felt there was no piece worthy of a prize of $100 among the very few pieces of sculpture submitted. A first award of $200 in painting went to Herb Griswold for his casein painting, "Ruins," and Donna Sharkey received the second prize of $100 for her oil, "The Wait." Art Riley's watercolor, "Oil Rig," received a $50 third prize. There were two prizes awarded in graphics. Her drawing, "Early," was donated to Peter V. Werner. The even number altogether represented done by members, which, best by of artists. PROFE which it with being of artists

Affiliates Celebrate Birthday

The Affiliates of the Laguna Beach Art Association will be celebrating a first birthday with special pride on Sept. 17 with a tea at the home of Mrs. Colin Timmons. The board will honor members who have contributed time and effort "beyond the call of duty" on the year's projects. Special guests of the day will be Mrs. Hovey Cox, who organized the group last summer, and Mrs. Armand Schaefer, first president.

Topping the list of initial accomplishments is the just completed five weeks stint when teams of four daily manned the All-California Show at the Festival of Arts. The exhibition, sponsored by the Art Association and the All-California Committee of the Festival, was open to the public at no charge and the Affiliates, primarily a fund-raising auxiliary, are grateful to six artist members who contributed paintings which in turn were offered for drawing each week with highly lucrative returns. Warm thank yous to artists Joan Irving, Jack Macartney, Ray Friesz, Leon Franks, Roger Kuntz and Elsa Gieshen.

This Festival project together with the very successful Flea Market Sale in January will become annual projects in the work of supplying the Art Association with additional funds for its activities.

Other undertakings during this first pace-setting year found the Affiliates hosting the Art Association's annual Christmas Party and a gala benefit Golden Champagne Party during the June Sculpture Show.

The 1964-65 program will open with the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 7, at the Art Gallery. Board members for the new year include the president, Miss Fern Randolph; vice-presidents, Mrs. William Gieshen, Edward Reed, and W. Lynn Gertenbach Will Show Wares To Art Affiliates

An artist's eye view of the peoples of other lands is in store for the Affiliates of the Laguna Art Association when the young portrait painter, Lynn Gertenbach, will present "Character Studies in Oil" at their Dec. 2 meeting in the Gallery at 307 Cliff Dr.

Recently returned from her latest sketching trek, a trip through Mexico, Miss Gertenbach will illustrate her technique with a "quick sketch" portrait. Pictures done during travels in India, where she spent a year demonstrating in their art schools, in Egypt and in Mexico will be shown.

Miss Gertenbach, born in Milwaukee, schooled in Colorado, received three art scholarships launching her on a career that has already lured her to colorful foreign lands for her subjects. During the past three years she has made her home in Laguna, exhibiting each summer at the Festival of Arts.

Currently she is showing work from her travels in India and Egypt at the Villa Montalvo in San Francisco and exhibiting a group of "Impressions of Mexico" at the Maybelle Smith Gallery in San Diego.

The program will be followed by a short business meeting to lay final plans for the Founders' Preview Tea on Sunday, Dec. 6 and for the Artists' Sale and Christmas Bazaar also to be held at the Gallery on Dec. 11 and 12.

There will be a no-host luncheon at the Victor Hugo, reservations for which should be phoned to Mrs. Edward Reed, 494-5047, or Mrs. Frank Frye, 494-1475.

Members are invited to bring guests to the program at the usual fee.

Do-It-Yourself Craze Brings Glamorous Gifts for Yuletide

BY CLYDE SNYDER

Times Staff Writer

LAGUNA BEACH — A "Christmas artist" is defined by Mrs. W. H. Allerhand as a woman who creates glamorous holiday gifts and decorations out of everyday household articles.

These include egg cartons, fancy liquor and perfume bottles and empty cat food cans.

Women go "slightly mad" with an obsession for being a "do-it-yourselfer" in the creation of pretty things as the Yuletide approaches, Mrs. Allerhand stated.

She says this craze can be bewildering to other members of the family.

Examples of this, Mrs. Allerhand says, are the father who while seeking a nip from a bottle of apple juice in the refrigerator gets a swig of Scotch whiskey — mother had appropriated the whiskey bottle to create an ornamental candle holder; a daughter hankering for some macaroni and cheese was frustrated when she found the macaroni all gone. Mother had used it to make picture frames very beautiful when spray-painted.

Two Laguna Beach

groups will put their self-made articles on display late this week. The public is invited.

The Laguna Beach Garden Club will hold its "Holiday House" Friday, Dec. 11, at the Woman's Clubhouse, when a wide assortment of home-made articles suitable for use as gifts will be put on the block.

The Affiliates of the Laguna Art Assn. will stock several tables with Christmas gifts in conjunction with the Laguna Beach Art Assn. auction and bazaar at the Laguna Art Gallery Friday and Saturday, Dec. 11-12.

Women of Laguna Beach have great ingenuity for designing most unusual and pleasant looking objects out of "nothing."

Workshops Help

As the holiday season draws near, workshops for Christmas gift ideas are held. Mrs. J. W. Bennett and Mrs. Mayme Kraft have been teaching the women to become "do-it-yourselfers."

The thoughtful woman may paint and decorate small food cans into dresser catch-alls for men and women.

Egg cartons are transformed into attractive door decorations and miniature Christmas trees. One has to look closely at the sparkling creation to smarten up to what it's made of.

Coffee cans are sprayed and trimmed with paper doilies, laces and artificial flowers to become cookie containers.

Choir Boy

A pocket-sized monthly magazine is carefully folded, sprayed and glued — then topped with a head and gauzy wings to make "a truly fascinating angel choir boy."

Treasured pieces of felt and velvet come out of hiding to be embellished with jewelry, fringe, material, ribbon and heirloom laces and buttons to make fancy wall and door hangings that defy you to identify them as home-made products.

Affiliates Slate Program 'Art of Sepia Painting'

David Rosen, Laguna Beach artist, will demonstrate the "Art of Sepia Painting" before the Affiliates of the Laguna Art Association at their meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 6, in the Gallery.

Mr. Rosen's series of the Hamlet Soliloquies were exhibited during the Shakespeare Anniversary Year in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Orange Coast College and Laguna Gallery. In April the exhibit was aired on KHJ TV in Los Angeles and in October in San Diego with commentary by the artist. Examples of the sepia technique used in the Hamlet group will be shown.

Topping the business agenda will be the important scheduling of plans for operation of the annual Flea Market to be held Jan. 21 to 23 in the School of Art and Design at the Festival grounds.

This event is the major fund-raising project of the Affiliates and all members and friends of the Gallery are urged to donate their "idle treasure"—antiques, objects d'art, furniture and furnishings—to this cause. A receipt for tax deduction on articles over $10 in value will be given.

Please call Mrs. Edward Reed 494-5047 for further information.
